TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

For the 99th time we want to ask you to write articles of general interest or to not write at all. How many of the Courier's readers care whether or not Sam Slick called on his best girl Sunday? A great many of us have done likewise at some time or other without creating any undue excitement. And is the fact that Tom Tall walked home with a belle from Cricket Heath Sunday, sufficient to set the gossiping world agog? Can't you see that those things interest but very few people? Then cut 'em out. If you only knew it, you are capable of writing better things. Can't you see how the editor does you a kindness when he takes a blue crayon and draws a goat path through the median line of your manuscript and cuts out a lot of stuff which if it should appear in print would make you the butt of unpleasant criticism? Write something of interest or don't write at all.

So far as we are able to learn the cowardly cur who attempted to derail the passenger train near Stacy Fork last Saturday night is still at large. We regret very much that he cannot be apprehended and dealt with in the only manner befitting the perpetrator of such a dastardly act. A necktie party or a bonfire would be the only punishment commensurate with the awful crime he had in his heart to commit. The term, mercy, was never intended to apply to such a fiend in human form.

Hunt him down and rid the country of such a menace to the safety of its citizens and of such a blot upon its fair name.

Some one suggested after the fire that natural gas was the cause of it, but that theory was quickly exploded when it was made known that the store in which the fire originated was not heated—was only lighted—by gas and that there were no lights up stairs where the fire started. It is a fact that there is less danger attendant upon the use of natural gas than any other fuel and if every building in West Liberty were lighted and heated by gas the danger would be lessened one hundred per cent.

Dr. Conwell has compiled two lists which he plans to send to medical men and hospitals. One is a list of composition which help the sick to get well. The other a list of harmful tunes.

The list of injurious music was taken through tests of nearly all the standard songs and hymns. Among those which are depressing are the following:

"Dead March from Saul," "Plyel's Hymn," "Home Sweet Home," "Do They Think of Me at Home?"

"Old Cabin Home," "Old Black Joe," "John Brown's Body," "Ben Bolt,"

"Star Spangled Banner," "We Are Tenting To-night," "Abide With Me,"

"Am I a Soldier of the Cross," "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone,"

"Behold a Stranger at the Door," "Depths of Mercy Can There Be,"

"God is the Refuge of His Saints,"

The following songs have been found helpful to sick and well alike:

"The Mighty Fortress of the Lord,"

"The Old Oaken Bucket," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton,"

"When the Swallows Home-ward fly,"

"Coming Thro' the Rye," "Listen to the Mocking Bird,"

"Dixie," "Juanita,"

"The Last Rose of Summer," "My Old Kentucky Home,"

"Hush, My Dear, Lie Still and Slumber,"

"The Two Roses," "The Blue Danube,"

"Old Folks at Home," —Detroit New Tribune.

A Wife's Economics. Husband—Are you aware that it takes three-fourths of my salary to meet your dressmaker's bills?

Wife—Goodness gracious! What do you do with the rest of your money? —Exchange.

Monster Lobsters. Lobsters six feet long were frequently taken from New York bay by the first settlers.

Not Particularly Complimentary. Ella—My face is my fortune. Stella—You will escape the disgrace of dying rich.—New York Times.

Foreigners in England. Foreigners were banished from England in 1155 because they were considered too numerous.

Projectiles and Concrete. Projectiles fired even from the heaviest guns when they penetrate concrete do so without splintering it.

Wife. He that is proud eats up himself. Pride is his own glass, his own trumpet, his own chronicle.—Shakespeare.

Correspondence

LAMAR.

Lamar is one of those rural postoffices nestled among the hills. It consists of the postoffice, a store and a nice school building, of which the patrons are very proud.

Every one seems to be looking forward to the hunting season. Woe unto the quail.

Albert Coffee and J. R. Haney have sold their farms and are intending to go to Oklahoma to make their home.

Peter Wages and Emma Lykins were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last week.

DINGUS

Rev. A. L. Gillum is moving back to his farm on Relief.

E. D. and J. E. Bradley have returned from Huntington, buying a full line of dry goods while there.

B. F. Hamilton and wife, of Relief, are spending a few days here with relatives.

Yes, we enjoyed reading the magazine section of the Courier and consider it a wonderful gift. Many thanks.

Elder W. F. Lykins, of Grassy Creek, will begin a ten days meeting here Friday night before the 4th Sat. Nov.

Deputy Assessor, C. W. Patrick, has completed Elk Fork precinct and is working in West Liberty, ward 1.

What has become of Pighead, Fair Play, Cow Boy and others, that at one time added much to the life of the Courier? For some cause they are silent, possibly taking a rest. Others have loomed up as able correspondents, continue for a while, and vanish away. What's the matter! We feel confident that the editor does his part in supplying stationery and giving the paper free. There must be a lack of energy on the part of the writer who fails to successfully abide in his calling. The most of the time for the past 18 years I have given my best effort in contributing to the pages of the different papers that have been printed at West Liberty. While I may be dropped from the list of scribes, yet I still retain an unabated willingness to help make our paper better as it grows older. Oh, yes, scribes, have you drifted into nonentity? If not, awake thou that sleepest and come forth and live.

SLAB.

EZEL & MURPHY.

Mrs. M. F. Dennis is very sick at this writing.

Dr. H. V. Nickell, of West Liberty, was visiting here last week.

Dr. Wilburn Nickell made a business trip to Boyd county last week.

Luther Pieratt and C. W. Nickell made a business trip to West Liberty last Saturday.

Miss Goldia Waldeck spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. Luther Pieratt.

Rollie Murphy sold his farm last week to his mother, Mrs. Fanny Murphy, for $600, and then bought a farm of Millard Hill for $300.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Nickell visited W. G. Henry and family last Monday and Tuesday.

Judge Day and wife, of Grassy Creek, visited relatives here last week.

Joe C. Stamper and wife of Grassy Creek visited Frank Havens and wife Sunday.

Leslie Burton, of Kansas City, Mo., visited relatives here last week.

Jim Doe Yocum and Roe Walton have moved their saw mill to the Kennedy timber.

Another Double Vote Day

In Courier's Piano Contest

November 11th is Last Day on Big Free Vote Offer. November 11th is also, Double Vote Day.

Another Double Vote Day, November 15th. 15,000 Free Votes For Each $10.00 Turned in on Saturday, November 18th.

The race for Governor has now come to a close, but we do not expect the excitement of the people of Morgan County to be any less for the next few weeks to come for the race for first prize in the Courier's Great Contest is a race in which every good citizen of Morgan County is interested. What citizen would not be interested, for it is a race in which old Morgan County girls are the candidates and it is for them that men and women are going to vote. When a county has produced a great man, they are rightly proud of him, but no county has ever produced a man near so worthy of its love and emulation as its girls. Therefore, we urge every man and woman in Morgan County to lend their strongest support to some one of these girls who are competing for the prizes to be given in this contest. Now is the time to show them if you are really their friend and if you feel the interest in them that you should. Not one of them will blame you for the girl you vote for, but all will blame you if you do not vote at all. What manner of man is it who would go his length and to the end of his means to vote for McCreary or O'Rear and then fail to vote for the girl of his own home county? Now is the time for all good citizens to come to the aid of their favorite contestant.

Saturday next is the last day of the series of votes offered last week. We are also going to give double votes on all subscriptions brought in on that day. All contestants should turn in every thing possible on that day for a double vote offer is a splendid offer and you are sure to get double votes and perhaps you will win the 20,000 free vote offer too. Next Wednesday is also double vote day and on the following Saturday we will give 15,000 free votes for each $10.00 turned in.

ANOTHER BIG OFFER.

We are going to offer a series of free vote offers. To the contestants bringing in the largest amount on subscriptions from Nov. 2nd to Nov. 11th we will give 20,000 free votes.

THE PRIZES.

The first prize is a beautiful $400 COTE PIANO and will be on exhibition within a short time. The second prize is a handsome $62 SEWING MACHINE and the third prize is a LADIES $25 GOLD WATCH. We are sure that the girls of West Liberty and surrounding country will exert their best efforts to win on of these prizes, for it is not often that such an opportunity is offered.

HOW TO WIN.

The way to win this piano is by getting the largest number of votes in the contest; votes to be secured by getting SUBSCRIPTIONS to the LICKING VALLEY COURIER. Now the way to win is to enter at once and go right to work and ask your friends to give you their subscriptions and to help you to get others. Get an early start and do not let any one get ahead of you. A scale of votes will be found elsewhere in this paper. The nomination coupon and a free voting coupon will also be printed. Cut these out, fill in your name and send them in. It costs you nothing to enter.

RULES GOVERNING CONTEST.

1. Any person of good repute may enter this contest by filling in the nomination coupon with their own name or by a friend sending in your name.

2. Only one nomination coupon allowing a thousand votes will be allowed.

3. Votes are to be secured by getting subscriptions to the Licking Valley Courier and by clipping the free voting coupon from the paper.

4. All collections must be turned over to the contest manager and he will issue votes to you for the amount received.

5. Votes once issued to one contestant cannot be transferred to another.

6. Contestants are requested to give a receipt for all collections received.

7. All collections must be in this office one week from the date they are secured or votes will not be allowed.

8. Contest manager's signature must be attached to votes before they are of any value in the contest.

9. Any question arising in regard to the contest will be settled by the contest manager and his decision will be final.

10. At the close of the contest the ballots will be counted by a committee of appointed judges and the prizes will be awarded.

11. No ballots can be bought but can only be won by subscriptions to the paper.

12. Contestants are not restricted to any section but may get subscriptions anywhere in the United States.

Parental Sarcasm.

"Your daughter says she will marry me or nobody," said Baron Fucash defiantly.

"Yes," replied Mr. Cumrox with slight irritation, "and I reckon she's going to do both."—Washington Star.

Would Not Be Noticed.

Applicant—Yes, madam, I wish to secure board, but I must inform you that I am a vegetarian, madam. Mrs. Slimdick—Oh, that will be all right. You will not be expected to eat the meat. None of the others ever do.

Its Kind.

"A shoemaker has a looking glass sort of life, hasn't he?" "How so?" "Doesn't he reverse all usual rules by starting with his 'last' work first?"—Baltimore American.

Entirely Original.

"Do you consider Wobbleton's humor original, Blinks?" asked Dubblehick. "Sure it is," said Blinks. "Absolutely. I don't believe there is any humor in existence that antedates Wobbleton's jokes."—Judge.

Versatile.

Mrs. Blyones—Your husband, I hear, is quite versatile. Mrs. Brown—Smythe—Versatile is no name for it. Why, he can actually stay out late every night in the week and not give the same excuse twice.—Exchange.

Shook.

Molly—You say you shook all over when you proposed to her? Cholly—Yes, I did. Molly—And how about the girl? Cholly—Oh, she only shook her head.—London Modern Society.

Evidently.

"Mary, I've just been reading about a New York family that had the same nursemaid for sixty-two years." "Goodness! She must be acting as nursemaid to that family in its second childhood."—Exchange.

Made a Show of Himself.

"That was rough on Davis." "What?" "He stepped on a piece of orange peel, fell and was arrested for giving a street performance without a license."—London Ideas.

He Told Her.

Teacher—Johnny Stokes, how many make a million? Johnny—Very few on this earth, mum.
